BACKGROUND AND DISCUSSION

Corrections is contracting with Dr. Clementi for pre-employment psychological screening examination which is one of the required steps in the peace officer selection process.

Under the Agreement, Dr. Clementi would conduct psychological screening examinations at the County's request. The screening examinations consist of the following: 1) An extensive psychological testing of the candidate; 2) Mental status exam; and 3) An interview with a thorough report prepared for each evaluation. Each report includes a discussion of background issues, emotional or mental conditions that may adversely affect the candidate's exercise of the job duties of an officer, as well as an analysis of each candidate's psychological profile, and learning style.
