RE: Recommendation for Jasper Lowell – Behavioral Health Advisory Board

Dear Members of the Behavioral Health Advisory Board,

It is my privilege to recommend Jasper Lowell for membership on the Behavioral Health Advisory Board of Napa County. Over the past four years as his therapist, I have witnessed his remarkable transformation from a young man struggling with substance abuse, depression, and poor academic performance to someone who exemplifies resilience, emotional growth, and purpose.

Throughout my 40-year career working with at-risk youth and incarcerated adults, I have encountered few individuals as extraordinary as Jasper. He demonstrated an uncommon willingness to confront challenges and transform emotional suffering into self-awareness, and meaningful purpose.

Jasper consistently treats others with compassion, dignity, and respect, modeling these values in his interactions. His mentoring work with the Junior League Program highlights his ability to inspire and support others. His kindness, empathy, and emotional intelligence equip him uniquely to contribute meaningfully to the Board and to the Napa County community.

I wholeheartedly recommend Jasper Lowell for this role without hesitation. His character, maturity, and insight will undoubtedly enrich the Board's work. Should you have any questions or wish to discuss his qualifications further, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you for considering this exceptional young man for such an important role.

Sincerely,

John Wyman, LCSW
