

Local Campaign Ordinances (CA FPPC) - District Elections
County	FPPC Ordinance/ Resolution Recorded (Y/N)	Code Sec.	Contribution Limit in Code (Y/N)	Individual Contribution Limit (Election Year)	Organization Contribution Limit (Election Year)	Expenditure Limit (On Election Cycle)	Comments
Alameda	Y	1.07.030	Y	$20,000	$20,000
Butte	Y	52-1	N	-	-		Code relates only to campaign disclosures, not any contribution limitations or expenditure ceilings.
Contra Costa	Y	530-2 et seq.	Y	$2,500	$10,000
Fresno	Y	2.62.040	Y	$30,000	-
Humboldt	Y	2181-4	Y	$1,500	-		Individual limit is raised to $5,000 in any cycle where independent expenditures exceed $10,000 to support or oppose any candidate.
Kern	Y	2.130.050	Y	$800	$2,400	Voluntary ceilings of $100,000 primary and $150,000 general for Board of Supervisors; $200,000 primary and $250,000 general for countywide elected offices.	2.130.050(E) permits the Board of Supervisors to adjust by ordinance periodically based on change in CPI, effective Jan. 1, 2025 and on Jan. 1 of each odd year.
Kings	Y	20-079	Y	$25,000	-		Set by resolution, not by ordinance. Subsequently amended by Res. No. 20-079.1 (adds superintendent of schools to list of offices to which campaign contribution limits are applicable). Contribution limit may be adjusted in odd-numbered years.
Los Angeles	Y	2.190.040	Y	$300	PACs: $150,000; Political parties: $6,500	Voluntary ceiling of $.75/resident of the applicable supervisorial district, or $.25/resident for countywide offices	Individual contribution limit is raised to $1,500 if a candidate commits to and does not exceed the voluntary expenditure limit.
Madera	Y	2.09.060	Y	No Limit	-		Language affirmatively states that "[t]here shall be no limit on monetary contributions."

Marin	Y	2.03.030	N	-	-	Voluntary ceiling of $.90/resident of the applicable supervisorial district, or $.40/resident for countywide offices	Code does not set out individual contribution limit, only a voluntary expenditure ceiling. Per code section 2.03.030(C), "[t]he population for each supervisorial district shall be deemed to be one-fifth of the population of the entire county of Marin."
Merced	Y	2021-134	Y	$5,000	-		Set by resolution. Does not apply to personal funds.
Monterey	Y	1.10.030	N	-	-		Code relates only to campaign disclosures, not any contribution limitations or expenditure ceilings.
Napa	Y	2.104.040	Y	$5,900	-		Affirmatively cross-references Cal. Gov. Code Sec. 85301 to set local contribution limit.
Orange	Y	1-6-5	Y	$2,500	-		Also specifically applies to recall campaigns.
Riverside	Y	2.128.040	Y	$20,000	-		If a candidate's personal contributions exceed $20,000 threshold, that threshold is waived for other candidates in that race.
Sacramento	Y	2.115.300 et seq.	Y	$1,500 during election periods	$3,000		$250/person or organization during off-election years. $47,000 total/candidate during off-election years.
San Bernardino	Y	12.4305	Y	$10,000	$100,000		5% increase every odd-numbered year beginning Jan. 1, 2025, rounded up to nearest one hundred dollars.

San Diego	Y	32.923	Y	$1,100	Supervisorial Districts: $35,250; Countywide Offices except County Board of Education: $70,450	Mandatory expenditure ceiling of $100,000 unless the candidate (1) provides written notice to the Registrar of Election, the District Attorney, and all other candidates at least 21 days in advance of the election of the candidate's intent to exceed the ceiling, and; (2) deposits in the candidate's campaign contribution checking account all personal funds to be expended or contributed by the candidate at least 21 days in advance of the election; the candidate shall notify opponents in writing of the total amount so deposited.	Adjusted on odd-numbered years.
San Francisco	Y	1.114	Y	$500	-	Voluntary expenditure ceiling of $358,000 for countywide candidates - explicitly not applicable to candidates for the Board of Supervisors or Mayor. (1.128 and 1.130).	Ethics commission annually adjusts by regulation voluntary expenditure ceilings by CPI, rounded to the nearest $1,000. Formula: (243,000 x current CPI)/January 2010 CPI = current ceiling.
San Mateo	Y	2.03.020	Y	$1,000	-	-	Specifically excludes a candidate's contributions of personal funds to his or her own campaign.
Santa Barbara	Y	11B-1 et seq.	Y	Reject spending ceiling: Gov. Code 85301 ($3,000); Accept spending ceiling: Gov. Code 85402 (contribution limits vary)	-	Supervisorial districts: $1/resident of district (currently $96,000); Other countywide offices: $161,000; Judges: $75,000.	Complicated structure that starts with candidates deciding whether to accept or reject voluntary spending ceiling, then assigns contribution limits based on that decision by statutory cross-reference. Adjusted every odd-numbered year.
Santa Clara	Y	A35-1 et seq.	Y	Reject spending ceiling: $500; Accept spending ceiling $1,000	-	Board of Supervisors: $250,000; DA/Sheriff/Assessor: $500,000	Structure similar to Santa Barbara, but simplified. Starts with voluntary spending ceiling decision and assigns defined contribution limits based on that decision.
Santa Cruz	Y	8.04.040	Y	$550	-	-	Initial $500 limit increases by $25 every two years beginning Jan. 1, 2022, per subsection (E) of section 8.04.040.

Solano	Y	2022-8	Y	$30,000	-	Set by resolution, not by ordinance. May be adjusted every odd-numbered year beginning in January, 2023 - has not been adjusted as of March, 2025.
Sonoma	Y	2-303	Y	$3,500	-	Individual limit is raised to $7,000 in any cycle where independent expenditures exceed $10,000 to support or oppose any candidate.
Tulare	Y	1-33-2030	Y	$40,000	-	County administrative officer to adjust on odd-numbered years for inflation, per 1-33-2160; current number not published online.
