Community Participation

Please explain your reasons for wishing to serve and, in your opinion, how you feel you could contribute.

Housing in Napa County is increasingly in short supply in Napa's cities for those working in both the incorporated and unincorporated areas. Balancing Napa's goals of benefiting from city centered growth, leaving the unincorporated areas as open space and farmland is increasingly challenging. State mandates compound the challenge. Workers will increasingly look for employment that reduces their long commutes into Napa. My life long residency living in two of the county's cities, but mostly in the unincorporated areas, as well as farming from its far western reaches to its most easterly, gives me a unique perspective of the County and its housing needs. Combined with having served on the most recent Napa County General Plan Update Committee gives me a practical familiarity with the process and how the Housing Element connects with the other General Plan elements. I believe would be valuable.
