BACKGROUND AND DISCUSSION

The Great Wine Capitals Global Network (GWC) is an organization representing the most distinguished wine regions of the world. The GWC works to encourage international winery tourism as well as economic, academic, and cultural exchanges between members. Only one region per country can be selected as a “Great Wine Capital” and Napa Valley - San Francisco has been designated to represent the United States. Napa Valley - San Francisco joined the GWC in 2006. The cost of membership in the GWC is jointly shared by the Napa Valley Vintners, Visit Napa Valley, and the County of Napa. Representatives meet annually in a designated wine capital. The Board of Supervisors have agreed on the importance of County officials participating in the GWC program due to the global nature of the wine business in Napa County and the forum created by GWC to discuss issues of economic significance to the County and local wine industry.

Current GWC members include Adelaide, South Australia; Bilbao-Rioja, Spain; Bordeaux, France; Capetown-Cape Winelands, South Africa; Lausanne, Switzerland; Mainz Rheinhessen, Germany; Mendoza, Argentina; Napa Valley-San Francisco, USA; Porto, Portugal; Valparaiso-Casablanca Valley, Chile; and Verona, Italy.

Appointments

The appointment of Board members to the Great Wine Capitals General Assembly is addressed under Rule 35, in Part 1: Section 8B of the County Policy Manual, which states:

E. Notwithstanding the foregoing Guidelines, appointments to represent the County at the Great Wine Capitals General Assembly will be as follows:

1. The Board’s designated representative shall be appointed in the same manner as other appointments of Board members under this Rule 25.
2. The Chair shall be an additional designated representative.
3. The current Agricultural Commissioner will be designated to represent the County as the ranking agricultural official.

On January 7, 2020, the Board appointed Supervisor Pedroza to a four-year term to the Great Wine Capital General Assembly, which will expire in 2024, consistent with Rule 25. In accordance with Rule 35, the additional designated representative for the one-year term in 2023 would be Chair Ramos.
