REPORT BY: Leah Doyle-Stevens - BOS Staff Assistant
SUBJECT: Proclamation for 5th Annual Positive Parenting Awareness Month - January 2023

RECOMMENDATION

Presentation of a Proclamation to be received by Annmarie Baker, Program Manager, Cope Family Center, recognizing January 2023 as “5th Annual Positive Parenting Awareness Month” in Napa County.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Members of the Napa County community can play a vital role in supporting parents and caregivers to raise happy, healthy children, and during the month of January, Napa County Triple P Collaborative partners and many others, will be increasing awareness of the importance. Positive parenting is a protective factor that prevents and heals Adverse Childhood Experiences, which impact lifelong health and well-being and occur in the context of Adverse Community Environments that lack equity.

Families in Napa County can receive support from positive parenting programs, including the Triple P - Positive Parenting Program, an evidence-based program available thanks to a partnership between Napa County Health and Human Services Agency, ParentsCan, Cope Family Center, ChildStart Inc., and UpValley Family Centers.
