Water Audit California ("Water Audit") appeals the September 21, 2024, decision of the Napa County Planning Commission's approval of KEVIN & ANN MORRISON TR / HILLWALKER VINEYARDS WINERY revised Mitigated Negative Declaration/ Mitigation Monitoring Reporting Program and approval of the Exception to the Conservation Regulations, Exception to the County Road and Street Standards (RSS), and a Winery Use Permit subject to the recommended conditions of approval. NO. P23-00239-UP, USE PERMIT NO. P23-00101-UP, captioned above (collectively the "Application").

Water Audit appeals on its own behalf, on behalf of the general public and in the public interest. Water Audit has standing to appeal based on the submission of comment for the September 21, 2024 hearing. (see Napa County Code sec. 2.88.010 (G).)

A. Introduction.

Water Audit is a public benefit organization dedicated to advocating for the public trust and other public interests. Our concerns regarding this matter are greater than the subject decision alone.

B. Standard for Review.

If initial study demonstrates that a project may have significant environmental impact, a mitigated negative declaration may be appropriate – however, only when revisions to a project will avoid or mitigate the significant environmental impacts, as identified in the initial study, “to a point where clearly no significant effect on the environment would occur, and...there is no substantial evidence in light of the whole record before the public agency that the project, as revised, may have a significant effect on the environment.” (emphasis added) (Public Resources Code, §§ 21064.5 and 21080(c)(2); Mejia v. City of Los Angeles (2005) 130 Cal.App.4th 322, 331.) “May” in this context means a reasonable possibility of a significant effect on the environment. (Pub. Resources Code, §§ 21082.2(a), 21100, 21151(a); Pocket Protectors, supra, 124 Cal.App.4th 903, 927; League for Protection of Oakland's etc. Historic Resources v. City of Oakland (1997) 52 Cal.App.4th 896, 904–905.)

The “fair argument” standard requires an EIR if any substantial evidence in the record suggests that a project may have adverse environmental impacts; even under circumstances where opposing evidence is offered that supports an agency’s decision. (CEQA Guidelines, § 15064(f)(1); Pocket Protectors, supra, 124 Cal.App.4th 903, 931; Stanislaus Audubon Society v. County of Stanislaus (1995) 33 Cal.App.4th 144, 150-15; Quail Botanical Gardens Found., Inc. v. City of Encinitas (1994) 29 Cal.App.4th 1597, 1602.) Rather than issuing negative declarations or notices of CEQA exemption, the “fair argument” standard is a “low threshold” that encourages environmental review through an EIR (Pocket Protectors, supra, 124 Cal.App.4th at 928.) It is opposite of the deference generally provided to agencies.

In describing the scope of judicial review of an agency’s application of the fair argument standard, the Supreme Court has stated:

“If there [is] substantial evidence that the proposed project might have a significant environmental impact, evidence to the contrary is not sufficient to support a decision to dispense with preparation of an EIR and adopt a negative declaration, because it [can] be “fairly argued” that the project might have a significant environmental impact. Stated another way, if the [reviewing] court perceives substantial evidence that the project might have such an impact, but the agency failed to secure preparation of the required EIR, the agency’s action is to be set aside because the agency abused its discretion by failing to proceed “in a manner required by law.” ” (Citation omitted.) “The fair argument standard thus creates a low threshold for requiring an EIR, reflecting the legislative preference for resolving doubts in favor of environmental review. [Citation.]” (Save the Agoura Cornell Knoll v. City of Agoura Hills (2020) 46 Cal.App.5th 665, 675-7 (Emphasis added).)

“[I]t is a question of law, not fact, whether a fair argument exists, and the courts owe no deference to the lead agency’s determination. Review is de novo, with a preference for resolving doubts in favor of environmental review.” (Pocket Protectors, supra, 124 Cal.App.4th 903, 928 [emphasis in original].)

The California Supreme Court found that “[i]f no EIR has been prepared for a nonexempt project, but substantial evidence in the record supports a fair argument that the project may result in significant adverse impacts, the proper remedy is to order preparation of an EIR.” (Communities for a Better Environment v. South Coast Air Quality Management Dist. (2010) 48 Cal.4th 310, 319-320, citing, No Oil, Inc. v. City of Los Angeles (1974) 13 Cal.3d 68, 75, 88; Brentwood Assn. for No Drilling, Inc. v. City of Los Angeles (1982) 134 Cal.App.3d 491, 504–505.) “The ‘foremost principle’ in interpreting CEQA is that the Legislature intended the act to be read so as to afford the fullest possible protection to the environment within the reasonable scope of the statutory language.” (Communities for a Better Environment v. Calif. Resources Agency (2002) 103 Cal.App.4th 98, 109 [“CBE v. CRA”].)

An EIR is essential to CEQA. (Bakersfield Citizens for Local Control v. City of Bakersfield (2004) 124 Cal.App.4th 1184, 1214; Pocket Protectors, supra, 124 Cal.App.4th 903, 927.) An EIR provides accountability that “demonstrate[s] to an apprehensive citizenry that the agency has, in fact, analyzed and considered the ecological implications of its action.” (Laurel Heights Improvements Assn. v. Regents of University of California (1988) 47 Cal.3d 376, 392.)

An EIR is required if “there is substantial evidence, in light of the whole record before the lead agency, that the project may have a significant effect on the environment.” (Pub. Resources Code, § 21080(d); see also Pocket Protectors, supra, 124 Cal.App.4th 903, 927.) In few conditions, an agency may issue a negative declaration and avoid an EIR (see 14 Cal. Code Regs., § 15371 [“CEQA Guidelines”]), but only under the circumstances where there is not a “fair argument” that the project will have a significant environmental effect. (Pub. Resources Code, §§ 21100, 21064.)

As a matter of law, “substantial evidence includes . . . expert opinion.” (Pub. Resources Code, § 21080(e)(1); CEQA Guidelines, § 15064(f)(5).) When “experts” present conflicted evidence on the potential of environmental impacts, an agency must consider impacts (i.e. effects) as significant and prepare an EIR. (CEQA Guidelines § 15064(f)(5); Pub. Res. Code, § 21080(e)(1); Pocket Protectors, supra, 124 Cal.App.4th 903, 935.) “Significant environmental effect” is defined as “a substantial or potentially substantial adverse change in the environment.” (Pub. Resources Code, § 21068; see also CEQA Guidelines, § 15382.) Effects do not necessarily need to reach a threshold of “momentous” to qualify as CEQA “significant”, as the criterion is that the effects are “not trivial.” (No Oil, Inc., 13 Cal.3d at 83.)

“[N]either the lead agency nor a court may ‘weigh’ conflicting substantial evidence to determine whether an EIR must be prepared in the first instance.” (Pocket Protectors, supra, 124 Cal.App.4th 903, 935.) In the presence of a disagreement on the appropriateness of a negative declaration, the courts require an EIR. “It is the function of an EIR, not a negative declaration, to resolve conflicting claims, based on substantial evidence, as to the environmental effects of a project.” (Id.)

Absent an accurate description of the baseline physical environment, a proper CEQA decision cannot be made. CEQA Guidelines section 15125(a) states, in pertinent part, that a lead agency’s environmental review under CEQA:

...must include a description of the physical environmental conditions in the vicinity of the project, as they exist at the time [environmental analysis] is commenced, from both a local and regional perspective. This environmental setting will normally constitute the baseline physical conditions by which a Lead Agency determines whether an impact is significant.

(See Save Our Peninsula Committee v. County of Monterey (2001) 87 Cal.App.4th 99, 124-125[.])

C. Grounds for Appeal

1. The Notice of Determination (NOD) filed with CEQA names both the PBES and “Planning Commission” as Lead Agencies. Prima facie, IF TRUE, the Planning Commission was without jurisdiction to consider the project, as it is a fundamental principle of American law that no one may be the judge of their own matter. To draw and analogy, this matter has conflated the role of a prosecutor and a judge. Lead agencies have duties which have not been performed here, and the Planning Commission cannot determine whether they, themselves, have performed them. It is strongly asserted that they have not.

“A Lead Agency is also responsible for complying with all of the process-related aspects of CEQA, including the preparation and filing of all required notices, conducting all required public outreach activities, and the distribution of documents. Finally, the Lead Agency has a responsibility to consult with Responsible and Trustee Agencies, as described below.

Coordination with Responsible and Trustee Agencies:

The Lead Agency's decision whether to prepare an ND, MND, or an EIR is binding on all Responsible and Trustee Agencies, except in unusual circumstances (PRC Section 21080.1(a); State CEQA Guidelines Section 15050(c)). Therefore, a Lead Agency is required to consult with and involve all Responsible and Trustee Agencies throughout the CEQA process. First, the Lead Agency must consult with Responsible and Trustee Agencies prior to determining whether a negative declaration or an EIR is required for a project (PRC Section 21080.3(a); State CEQA Guidelines Section 15063(g)). If a Lead Agency determines an EIR is required for a project, the Lead Agency must send a Notice of Preparation to all Responsible and Trustee Agencies, who will then specify to the Lead Agency "the scope and content of the environmental information that is germane to the statutory responsibilities" of that agency in connection with the proposed project and which must be included in the EIR (PRC Section 21080.4; State CEQA Guidelines Section 15082(b))

Next, the Lead Agency must send every Responsible and Trustee Agency a Notice of Preparation (NOP) prior to undertaking an EIR (PRC Section 21092; State CEQA Guidelines Section 15082(a)). Within 30 days of receiving the NOP, each Responsible and Trustee Agency and OPR must provide the Lead Agency with detail about the scope and content of the environmental information related to the agency's area of statutory responsibility to be included in the draft EIR. (Pub. Res. Code § 21080.4(a); State CEQA Guidelines Section 15082(b).) Prior to completing an EIR, the Lead Agency must again consult with and invite comments from all Responsible and Trustee Agencies (PRC Sections 21104(a), 21153(a); State CEQA Guidelines Section 15086). If a Lead Agency intends to adopt an ND or MND, the Lead Agency must send a Notice of Intent (NOI) to every Responsible and Trustee Agency (State CEQA Guidelines Section 15073(c)). In addition to reaching out to Responsible and Trustee Agencies, other agencies that a Lead Agency must consult and request comments from include:

- Any other state, federal, or local agency that has jurisdiction by law with respect to the project or that exercises authority over resources which may be affected by the project (PRC Sections 21104(a), 21153(a); State CEQA Guidelines Section 15086(a)(3)); and
- Every city or county bordering the city or county within which the project is located (State CEQA Guidelines Section 15086(a)(4).)

Lead Agencies may also have special consultation requirements with other agencies in very specific situations—for example, when certain categories of large projects would affect water supplies, the Lead Agency has certain obligations to consult with the agency that would provide water to the project (State CEQA Guidelines Section 15086(a)(3).) Similarly, for a subdivision project within one mile of a State Water Resources Development System facility, a Lead Agency preparing an EIR must consult with Department of Water Resources (State CEQA Guidelines Section 15086(a)(7).) For projects of “statewide, regional, or area-wide significance” (State CEQA Guidelines Section 15206(b)), a Lead Agency must consult with transportation planning agencies and public agencies that have transportation facilities (including public transit agencies, if they have facilities within ½ mile of the project) within their jurisdictions that could be affected by the project (State CEQA Guidelines Section 15086(a)(5))

Proper communication with Responsible and Trustee agencies by the Lead Agency is not discretionary. In Fall River Wild Trout Foundation v. County of Shasta (1999) 70 Cal.App.4th 482, 492-93 the Third District Court of Appeal held that a County’s failure to send a copy of the mitigated negative declaration to CDFW as Trustee Agency deprived the County of information necessary to informed decision-making and informed public participation, and thus constituted prejudicial abuse of discretion.

The project access embraces for approximately one-half mile a tributary stream to Pickle Creek. Drawings show a clear infringement to the riparian way however the relevant segment of the stream was not encompassed in the posted CEQA documents. Further, the Application discloses the blocking of a watercourse, and the diversion of a spring, neither of which was disclosed in the CEQA postings.

The application states that PBES and staff will review it for completeness and reasonableness, however there is no staff report.

2. Errors in the record

(a) Graphics submitted to CEQA do not have necessary dimension or detail. For example, see Graphics "K" which do not show distances of driveway length and from stream or cistern, or between extraction of water and adjacent wells or watercourses. CEQA documents do not disclose two tributaries to Redwood Creek within one thousand feet of the site.

(b) Clearinghouse do not include any water availability, do not disclose the diversion of a spring, do not disclose the proximity

(c) CEQA State Clearing House Notice of Determination "Access to the property is through APNs 034-100-020, 034-100-043, and 034-110-059" which differs from the documents submitted. Clearinghouse documents are inconsistent. CEQA State Clearing House Summary Form for Electronic Document Submittal includes "Access to the property is through APNs 034-100-020, 034-100-043, and 034-110-059" however CEQA State Clearing House Notice of Intent "Access to the property is through APNs 034-110-029 and 034-100-020." The former APN should be "-059". It omits 034-100-043. This error is reflected in the CDFW comment on the project. Simply put, the entire project was not submitted for review, and therefore agency review is incomplete.

(d) CEQA Hillwalker Vineyards IS-MND and MMRP_OCR names five (5) wells, and

"Tier II and III Analysis are not required for the project," however the Water Availability acknowledges only two wells, and does not address the diversion of a spring. At page 4 footnote 2: WAA Procedure: "For the purposes of this procedure, surface waters are defined to include only those surface waters known or likely to support special status species or surface waters with an associated water right; however, as with all of the procedures in this WAA, there may be unique circumstances that require additional site-specific analysis to adequately evaluate a project's potential impacts on surface water bodies."

Because springs originate as groundwater, springs are eligible for WAA Tier 2 analysis. It is required that any proposed project wells within 1,500 feet⁹ of natural springs that are being used for domestic or agricultural purposes be evaluated to assess potential connectivity between the part of the aquifer system from which groundwater is planned to be produced and the spring(s). Springs exist in complex hydrogeologic environments. Other substantial evidence in the record may result in the need for such an analysis even though the spring(s) is located a greater distance from the planned well site. Where evaluation of potential connectivity between the project well(s) and springs is required, site-specific spring interference criteria will be established as appropriate for the springs(s) under consideration.

The latter and the impairment of the riparian way, if disclosed, would have required a Lake and Stream Alteration Agreement from CDFW pursuant to Fish and Game Code section 1602 et seq. Both were concealed on CEQA.

The California Department of Fish & Wildlife (CDFW):

... is California's Trustee Agency for the State's fish, wildlife, and plant resources. CDFW, in its trustee capacity, has jurisdiction over the conservation, protection, and management of fish, wildlife, native plants, and habitats necessary for biologically sustainable populations of those species. For the purposes of CEQA, CDFW is charged by law to provide, as available, biological expertise during public agency environmental review efforts, focusing specifically on projects and related activities that have the potential to adversely affect fish and wildlife resources.

<https://wildlife.ca.gov/Conservation/Environmental-Review/CEQA>

There are adjacent wells and blue water streams within 1,500 feet that require Tier II and Tier III analyzes. There are no geological studies, well completion reports, or well pump test data,

(e) The Water Availability Analysis and Water Use Estimate calculations not in conformity with County's WAA Guidance Document 2015, nor with current Water Availability Analyses. At Agenda Packet pdf page 434/5 there are omissions and inaccurate calculations. At one location in the application it states that the vineyards are dry farmed, in another it states water consumption for vineyard and winery. Winery water consumption stated is one half of the County standards, guest use is one third of County standards, landscape use is misstated, and there is an omitted pool. The cumulative adversely differences impacts the water neutrality determination,

D. The Public Trust

The project watercourses are supportive of federal and state designated special status species that constitute the res of the public trust.

The public trust fulfills the basic elements of a trust: intent, purpose, and subject matter. (Estate of Gaines (1940) 15 Cal.2d 255, 266.) It has beneficiaries, the people of the state, and trustees, the agencies of the state entrusted with public trust duties. Fish and wildlife form a critical part of the res of the public trust. In the limited circumstances of the alienation of components of the public trust into private hands, the private party becomes bound with trustee duties pursuant to Public Resources Code § 6009.1.

The essential idea of the public trust doctrine is that the government holds and protects certain natural resources in trust for the public benefit. (See Illinois Central Railroad v. Illinois (1892) 146 U.S. 387, 452, 456; National Audubon Society v. Superior Court (Audubon) (1983) 33 Cal.3d 419, 441; Berkeley v. Superior Court (1980) 26 Cal.3d 515, 521.)

Public trust theory has its roots in the Roman and common law (United States v. 11.037 Acres of Land (N.D. Cal. 1988) 685 F. Supp. 214, 215) and its principles underlie the entirety of the State of California. Upon its admission to the United States in 1850, California received the title to its tidelands, submerged lands, and lands underlying inland navigable waters as trustee for the benefit of the public. (People v. California Fish Co. (California Fish) (1913) 166 Cal. 576, 584; Carstens v. California Coastal Com. (1986) 182 Cal.App.3d 277, 288.) The People of California did not surrender their public trust rights; the state holds land in its sovereign capacity in trust for public purposes. (California Fish, Ibid.)

The courts have ruled that the public trust doctrine requires the state to administer, as a trustee, all public trust resources for current and future generations, specifically including the public trust in surface waters and the life that inhabits our watercourses. These trust duties preclude the state from alienating those resources into private ownership.

The beneficiaries of the public trust are the people of California, and it is to them that the trustee owes fiduciary duties. As Napa County is a legal subdivision of the state, it must deal with the trust property for the beneficiary's benefit. No trustee can properly act for only some of the beneficiaries – the trustee must represent them all, taking into account any differing interests of the beneficiaries, or the trustee cannot properly represent any of them. (Bowles v. Superior Court (1955) 44 C2d 574.) This principle is in accord with the equal protection provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment to the US Constitution.

An agency of the State "may not approve of destructive activities without giving due regard to the preservation of those [public trust] resources." (Center for Biological Diversity, Inc. v. FPL Group, Inc. (Bio Diversity) (2008) 166 Cal.App.4th 1349, 1370, fn. 19, 83 Cal.Rptr.3d 588.) [Emphasis added]

Agencies of the state must not engage in unlawful conduct. "It is a fundamental principle of our constitutional scheme that government, like the individual, is bound by the law." (Alderman v. United States (1968) 394 U.S. 165, 202.) When lawless conduct occurs, the Government may not profit from its fruits. (Weeks v. United States, (1914) 232 U.S. 383.) The County's duty is to obey the law, which among other things requires that it not harm public trust resources by its decisions and requires the state to use its best efforts for the long-term preservation of public trust resources for the public benefit. (Audubon, supra, 33 Cal.3d 419, 440-441; Surfrider Foundation v. Martins Beach 1, LLC (2017) 14 Cal.App.5th 238, 249-251; Public Resources Code, § 6009.1.)

Common law imposes public trust considerations upon the County's decisions and actions pertaining to trust assets. (Bio Diversity, supra, 166 Cal.App.4th 1349; Environmental Law Foundation v. State Water Resources Control Board (ELF) (Cal. Ct. App. 2018) 26 Cal.App.5th 844.) The courts have recognized the State's responsibility to protect public trust uses whenever feasible. (See, e.g., Audubon, supra. 33 Cal.3d 419, 435; California Trout, Inc. v. State Water Resources Control Bd. (Cal. Trout I) (1989) 207 Cal.App.3d 585, 631; California Trout, Inc. v. Superior Court (Cal. Trout II) (1990) 218 Cal.App.3d 187, 289.) Napa County has an affirmative duty to administer the natural resources held by public trust solely in the interest of the people of California.

Napa County must manage its public trust resources so as to derive the maximum benefit for its citizenry. Article X of the California Constitution and the public trust doctrine hold that no water rights in California are truly "vested" in the traditional sense of property rights.

Regardless of the nature of the water right in question, no water user in the State "owns" any water. The owner of "legal title" to all water is the State in its capacity as a trustee for the benefit of the public. There can be no vested rights in water use that harm the public trust. A "water right" grants the holder only the right to use water, an "usufructuary right." All water rights are usufructuary only and confer no right of private ownership in the water or the watercourse, which belongs to the State. (People v. Shirokow (1980) 26 Cal.3d 301 at 307.)

E. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, Water Audit California appeals the adoption of the above stated Mitigated Negative Declaration and granting of exception the Conservation Regulations and respectfully requests either that the matter be returned for further proceedings consistent with this appeal, or in the alternative that the applicant be directed to prepare a full EIR.

Respectfully,

William McKinnon

Jason,
Here are the driller's reports for the two highest flow wells. #1 is 15gpm and #3 is 3-5 gpm. There are two other wells at .5gpm and the man dug well around that rate too in late summer. Right now they will pump water as fast as the pumps will go.

Mark Holler

Please forward these to the county and see if they will be adequate.

GUARANTEE CONDITIONS

1. Definition of Terms.

The following terms when used in the Guarantee mean:

- (a) the "Assured": the party or parties named as the Assured in Schedule A, or on a supplemental writing executed by the Company.
- (b) "Land": the Land described or referred to in Schedule A, and improvements affixed thereto which by law constitute real property. The term "Land" does not include any property beyond the lines of the area described or referred to in Schedule A, nor any right, title, interest, estate or easement in abutting streets, roads, avenues, alleys, lanes, ways or waterways.
- (c) "Mortgage": mortgage, deed of trust, trust deed, or other security instrument.

- (e) "Date of Guarantee": the Date of Guarantee set forth in Schedule A.
- (f) "Amount of Liability": the Amount of Liability as stated in Schedule A.

2. Notice of Claim to be Given by Assured.

The Assured shall notify the Company promptly in writing in case knowledge shall come to the Assured of any assertion of facts, or claim of title or interest that is contrary to the assurances set forth in Schedule A and that might cause loss or damage for which the Company may be liable under this Guarantee. If prompt notice shall not be given to the Company, then all liability of the Company shall terminate with regard to the matter or matters for which prompt notice is required; provided, however, that failure to notify the Company shall in no case prejudice the rights of the Assured under this Guarantee unless the Company shall be prejudiced by the failure and then only to the extent of the prejudice.

3. No Duty to Defend or Prosecute.

The Company shall have no duty to defend or prosecute any action or proceeding to which the Assured is a party, notwithstanding the nature of any allegation in such action or proceeding.

4. Company's Option to Defend or Prosecute Actions; Duty of Assured to Cooperate.

Even though the Company has no duty to defend or prosecute as set forth in Paragraph 3 above:

- (a) The Company shall have the right, at its sole option and cost, to institute and prosecute any action or proceeding, interpose a defense, as limited in Paragraph 4 (b), or to do any other act which in its opinion may be necessary or desirable to establish the correctness of the assurances set forth in Schedule A or to prevent or reduce loss or damage to the Assured. The Company may take any appropriate action under the terms of this Guarantee, whether or not it shall be liable hereunder, and shall not thereby concede liability or waive any provision of this Guarantee. If the Company shall exercise its rights under this paragraph, it shall do so diligently.
- (b) If the Company elects to exercise its options as stated in Paragraph 4(a) the Company shall have the right to select counsel of its choice (subject to the right of the Assured to object for reasonable cause) to represent the Assured and shall not be liable for and will not pay the fees of any other counsel, nor will the Company pay any fees, costs or expenses incurred by an Assured in the defense of those causes of action which allege matters not covered by this Guarantee.
- (c) Whenever the Company shall have brought an action or interposed a defense as permitted by the provisions of this Guarantee, the Company may pursue any litigation to final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction and expressly reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to appeal from an adverse judgment or order.
- (d) In all cases where this Guarantee permits the Company to prosecute or provide for the defense of any action or proceeding, the Assured shall secure to the Company the right to so prosecute or provide for the defense of any action or proceeding, and all appeals therein, and permit the Company to use, at its option, the name of the Assured for this purpose. Whenever requested by the Company, the Assured, at the Company's expense, shall give the Company all reasonable aid in any action or proceeding, securing evidence, obtaining witnesses, prosecuting or defending the action or lawful act which in the opinion of the Company may be necessary or desirable to establish the correctness of the assurances set forth in Schedule A or to prevent or reduce loss or damage to the Assured. If the Company is prejudiced by the failure of the Assured to furnish the required cooperation, the Company's obligations to the Assured under the Guarantee shall terminate.

5. Proof of Loss or Damage.

- (a) In the event the Company is unable to determine the amount of loss or damage, the Company may, at its option, require as a condition of payment that the Assured furnish a signed proof of loss. The proof of loss must describe the defect, lien, encumbrance, or other matter that constitutes the basis of loss or damage and shall state, to the extent possible, the basis of calculating the amount of the loss or damage.
- (b) In addition, the Assured may reasonably be required to submit to examination under oath by any authorized representative of the Company and shall produce for examination, inspection and copying, at such reasonable times and places as may be designated by any authorized representative of the Company, all records, books, ledgers, checks, correspondence and memoranda, whether bearing a date before or after Date of Guarantee, which reasonably pertain to the loss or damage. Further, if requested by any authorized representative of the Company, the Assured shall grant its permission, in writing, for any authorized representative of the Company to examine, inspect and copy all records, books, ledgers, checks, correspondence and memoranda in the custody or control of a third party, which reasonably pertain to the loss or damage. All information designated as confidential by the Assured provided to the Company pursuant to this paragraph shall not be disclosed to others unless, in the reasonable judgment of the Company, it is necessary in the administration of the claim. Failure of the Assured to submit for examination under oath, produce other reasonably requested information or grant permission to secure reasonably necessary information from third parties as required in the above paragraph, unless prohibited by law or governmental regulation, shall terminate any liability of the Company under this Guarantee to the Assured for that claim.

6. Options to Pay or Otherwise Settle Claims: Termination of Liability.

In case of a claim under this Guarantee, the Company shall have the following additional options:

- (a) To pay or tender payment of the Amount of Liability together with any costs, attorneys' fees, and expenses incurred by the Assured that were authorized by the Company up to the time of payment or tender of payment and that the Company is obligated to pay.

- (b) To pay or otherwise settle with the Assured any claim assured against under this Guarantee. In addition, the Company will pay any costs, attorneys' fees, and expenses incurred by the Assured that were authorized by the Company up to the time of payment or tender of payment and that that the Company is obligated to pay; or
- (c) To pay or otherwise settle with other parties for the loss or damage provided for under this Guarantee, together with any costs, attorneys' fees, and expenses incurred by the Assured that were authorized by the Company up to the time of payment and that the Company is obligated to pay.

Upon the exercise by the Company of either of the options provided for in 6 (a), (b) or (c) of this paragraph the Company's obligations to the Assured under this Guarantee for the claimed loss or damage, other than the payments required to be made, shall terminate, including any duty to continue any and all litigation initiated by the Company pursuant to Paragraph 4.

7. Limitation of Liability.

- (a) This Guarantee is a contract of Indemnity against actual monetary loss or damage sustained or incurred by the Assured claimant who has suffered loss or damage by reason of reliance upon the assurances set forth in Schedule A and only to the extent herein described, and subject to the Exclusions From Coverage of this Guarantee.
