7. PUBLIC COMMENT

Five (5) people spoke during public comment.

8. BOARD OF SUPERVISORS REPORTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Vice-Chair Anne Cottrell requested information from CEO Ryan Alsop regarding a public comment received from Water Audit California.

County Executive Officer Ryan J. Alsop addressed a public comment received via email for Item 6I on the March 12, 2024, Board of Supervisors agenda (agreement with PRO-File Business Records).

Vice-Chair Cottrell shared a statement that while she understands the value of free speech, when an individual chooses to launch personal attacks during public comment, it doesn't advance any substantive agenda. Vice-Chair Cottrell also reported on attending the Fire Resources Fair at the Napa County Expo on March 16 and commended the Napa County Grapegrowers, Napa Valley Vintners, and Napa Communities Firewise Foundation for their sponsorship, Fire Administrator David Shew and Fire Marshall Jason Downs for their presentations and thanked everyone in the community who participated.

Supervisor Belia Ramos reported on attending an Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG) workshop last Thursday where they received a presentation on the proposed Regional Housing bond measure, and they will be taking action on April 19, 2024, in hopes of placing the bond measure on the November ballot.

Chair Joelle Gallagher reported on attending the Climate Action Committee (CAC) meeting last Friday where they will be forwarding a Reusable Food Ware Ordinance. Outreach and education will be performed in the unincorporated areas, and the draft ordinance will be presented to the Board in the coming months. Chair Gallagher echoed Vice-Chair Cottrell's earlier statement and asked if the agenda could have a reminder to those presenting public comment to be respectful and free from personal attacks. Clerk of the Board Neha Hoskins read a paragraph that is currently on the agenda related to the subject, and Chair Gallagher stated she would be reiterating the reminder at the beginning of each meeting.

Supervisor Alfredo Pedroza reported on a Metropolitan Transportation Commission (MTC) and ABAG legislative visit at the State where they reviewed the State's budget. Supervisor Pedroza also commended the Napa Valley Expo Board of Directors for looking at the possibility of creating sports fields for temporary use at the fairgrounds that would provide opportunities to local families and children.
