BOARDS

- * Chairman Family Winemakers of California representing over 700 wineries throughout the State of California.
Family Winemakers of California is an "organization that reflects the small producer's point of view." With nearly 5,300 licensed wineries in California someone needs to consistently speak for small, family wineries in the fight for more access to markets, protecting individual freedom from government over-regulation, and fostering aspirations to make the best wine. Our beginnings are humble. Family Winemakers was founded in 1990 after the wine market order extension was voted down in a true grassroots campaign. Industry growth and public policy on a myriad of issues begged for input from small producers. One man, one vote is the bedrock principle behind Family Winemakers that guides our views on legislation, regulation, litigation and business practices. We've spent 25 years and counting working to loosen up the post-Prohibition restrictions in California law and broaden access to domestic markets.
